

New Location!

Premier Automation to Open New Location in Washington, PA

In the near future, Premier Automation will begin operations at a new location in Washington, PA. The new facility will allow Premier Automation to more conveniently serve its customers with increased capacity.

The Facility:

- 66,000 sq. ft. manufacturing & engineering facility
- Large shop for big projects such as PCR rooms
- Facility equipped with crane capacity up to 40 tons
- Full line of panel building services available
- Powered by Premier Automation engineering and backed by our service
- Located in the heart of the Tri-State oil & gas industry
- Convenient location just off I-70 & I-79

Washington, PA Address:
320 Reliance Dr, Washington, PA 15301

Contact us today!
sales@premierautomation.com

“Our new facility in Washington is an exciting opportunity for us to more conveniently serve new and existing customers in the region.”

- Premier Automation CEO, Eli Evankovich

About Premier Automation

Premier Automation is an engineered solutions company that specializes in providing automation, drive and electrical control solutions and services, and robotics to industrial markets. Premier Automation offers cost effective, industry specific technology solutions to help our customers increase their industrial productivity, efficiency and overall systems performance. We take the time to understand your unique process and requirements, and then work closely with you to develop the best control solution for your need.

 sales@premierautomation.com

 412-373-3700

 premierautomation.com